Re: United States v. Brian Kolfage, 20 Cr. 412 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres,

I move the Court, with the government's and Pretrial Services's consent, to permanently modify the terms of Mr. Kolfage's personal recognizance bond to permit him to travel to and from Michigan, as well as states in between Florida and Michigan, as needed. Mr. Kolfage's close family member has rapidly become very sick and is going to undergo a serious operation. He is processing the news and coordinating with family but may need to travel to Michigan at any given moment given the circumstances, and it is possible that he may need to make more than one trip to Michigan. We have provided the government and Pretrial Services with detailed information related to this application and they both consent.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that Mr. Kolfage's bond be permanently modified to permit him to travel to and from Michigan, as well as states in between Florida and Michigan, as needed.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
